Burundi: Human Rights Watch accuses authorities of blocking humanitarian aid to quarantine sites.

Chad: The government imposes a curfew on five provinces, including the capital of N'djamena.

eSwatini: The capital city of Mbabane is applying disinfectant to high touch surface areas to lessen the impact of Covid-19.

Gambia: National media houses to deliver lessons on core subjects in a new e-learning program.

Kenya: The authorities arrest Kilifi Deputy Governor Gideon Saburi for refusing to follow quarantine rules.

Kenya: A group of pastors submit a request to include churches in the list of "essential services."

Nigeria: The federal government directs its 36 states to provide at least 300 bed space facilities.

Tunisia: The government deploys a police robot to patrol the capital and monitor lockdown enforcement.

MEDIA TRENDS

Google trends on Covid-19 mobility: Retail and recreation declines by 40% in Nigeria and 56% in Rwanda.

FIGURE(S) OF THE DAY: 17,000 +

Arrests made in the first week of the lock-down in South Africa.