Gambia: The World Bank approves a $10 million grant to help the country fight against the Covid-19 pandemic.

Ivory Coast: Prime Minister Amadou Gon Coulibaly returns to the office after 14 days in self-quarantine while Defense Minister Hamed Bakayoko tests positive.

Ivory Coast: Protesters dismantle a half-built testing center, fearing the facility would attract infected individuals.

Malawi: President Mutharika orders treasury to deduct 10 percent of his and his cabinet's salaries.

Mali: The MNLA, a rebel group, and the government are cooperating to prepare for quarantine stations in the northern city of Kidal.

Nigeria: The Nigerian Medical Association, rejects plans by the Federal Government to invite an 18-member Chinese medical team to assist coronavirus efforts.

Uganda: The government announces plans to re-open schools at the end of April.

African Union meeting: Leaders united to request waivers for loan payments owed by African nations.

Chinese Billionaire, Jack Ma begins a second round of medical supply donations to all 54 African nations.

MEDIA TRENDS

Nigeria: 2k on “Thank you coronavirus helpers.”