Botswana: President Mokgweetsi Masisi begins a 14-day quarantine following his visit to Zimbabwe.

Burundi: Voters head to the polls despite concerns that this will spread Covid-19.

Cameroon: President Paul Biya address the nation for the first time since the first reported Covid-19 case was announced on March 6.

Kenya: Authorities suspend marriage registration services at the Attorney General’s office due to Covid-19.

Morocco: The government announces that businesses can resume activity on May 26.

Nigeria: Nasarawa state lifts the ban on religious gatherings for two weeks.

Tanzania: Authorities question the reliability of Kenyan Covid-19 tests.

Uganda: The police close shops in Kampala that have not installed wash-points.

United Nations: The UN Secretary General António Guterres praises Africa’s “swift” response to the pandemic, with reported cases much lower than initially feared.

---

MEDIA TRENDS

- #lockdownlevel3; #coronavirusinkenya

Kenya: 10K+ on “Covid-19 Cases” as governments begin to ease lockdowns while cases continue to rise.

Confirmed Covid-19 cases across the continent.