Ethiopia: The ministry of health, in collaboration with stakeholders, launches two mobile applications to track, alert, and share Covid-19 information with users.

Ghana: President Nana Akufo-Addo announces an easing of restrictions. Religious gatherings can now take place with 100 congregants at a time and for an hour.

Kenya: Officials transfer 31 prisoners to health facilities in Nairobi after they test positive for coronavirus.

Mauritius: The government eases the strict lockdown.

Nigeria: The Air Force Institute of Technology unveils locally made ventilators.

Rwanda: The health minister announces a reversal of plans to ease Covid-19 restrictions on Monday.

South Africa: The trade and industry minister announces export of personal protective equipment to African states.

South Africa: The government partially reopens the economy and lifts the ban on the sale of alcohol.

Tanzania: The government announces a reopening of colleges and schools for students in their final year.

Uganda: Officials arrest members of parliament for leading a demonstration to close the country’s border with South Sudan after 50 truck drivers test positive for Covid-19.

---

MEDIA TRENDS

#Liquorshops; @USEmbassyHarare; #Level3

FIGURE(S) OF THE DAY: 19%

Malawians afraid of Covid-19 according to an Ipor poll.