Equatorial Guinea: The government asks the World Health Organization to leave the country, accusing its representative of falsifying the tally of Covid-19 cases.

Botswana: The Ministry of Foreign Affairs announces plans to repatriate 94 Batswana stranded in various countries.

Nigeria: The Nigerian Centre for Disease Control says at least 812 health workers have tested positive for Covid-19.

Nigeria: The deputy governor of Bauchi state, Baba Tela, tests positive for coronavirus.

South Africa: A gang of armed men, dressed as health care workers rob $12,000 from a supermarket.

South Africa: A high court in Pretoria declares that the lockdown regulations put in place since March were "invalid and unconstitutional."

Tanzania: The U.S. embassy issues a new travel advisory cautioning its citizens to avoid leaving their homes.

Rugby Africa cancels all its competitions for 2020 to protect the health of players and the public.

---

Cases of Coronavirus:

- 1-500
- 501-1,000
- 1,001-10,000
- 10,001 - 50,000
- 50,000 +