Kenya: The health ministry says it will roll out home-based care for Covid-19 patients as isolation facilities reach capacity.
Madagascar: The education minister was sacked after unveiling a plan order $2.2 million worth of sweets to mask the “bitter” aftertaste of Covid-Organics concoction.
Rwanda: The government begins trial flights on drones that they are considering using to deliver Covid-19 test kits. The country is bracing for a surge in cases following increased border crossing from neighboring Burundi.
South Africa: The government extends the lockdown to 15 July.
Uganda: The health ministry announces that all government ministers will be tested for Covid-19 after the prime minister went into cautionary self-isolation.
Kenya, Rwanda, Tanzania and Uganda make final adjustments to their budget plans.

Liberians in overcrowded slums that can afford to purchase masks, according to the National Public Health Institute.