Chad: The former president, Hissène Habré, is due to return to prison in Senegal after spending two months at home to protect himself from coronavirus.

Kenya: The president extends the nationwide overnight curfew by 30 days but shortens the curfew hours.

Liberia: The president announces that the country will reopen the international airport and hotels in two weeks.

Nigeria: The governor of Abia State, Okezie Ikpeazu, tests positive for Covid-19. His deputy will act on his behalf as he undergoes treatment.

Nigeria: The minister of information and culture canvasses for a 'Marshall Plan' to aid the recovery of the travel and tourism sectors following the impact of the pandemic.

South Africa: The administrators at South African Airways (SAA) ask creditors to delay the publication of a rescue plan after unions request further talks with the government.

South Africa: The education minister says 95% of learning institutions are safe to re-open.

South Sudan: Vice-President Riek Machar and his wife recover from coronavirus and will resume office duties.

Zimbabwe: Six opposition figures arrested for allegedly breaching lockdown rules are released on bail.

---

FIGURE(S) OF THE DAY: $300m

Loan to Nigeria from the African Development Bank to help the country deal with the impact of Covid-19.

Data compiled from WHO Regional Office for Africa, NCovAfrica Tracker, Worldometer and Government sources.