Botswana: Authorities reopen Gaborone following a three-day lockdown implemented after a recorded spike in positive Covid-19 cases.

Nigeria: The Lagos state governor delays the reopening of worship centers due to lingering coronavirus concerns.

Nigeria: The health ministry develops a three-year Health Sector Response Plan to recover from the lasting effects of Covid-19.

South Africa: Researchers announce food prices in the country have risen nearly 30 percent during the pandemic.

Tanzania: President John Magufuli announces that schools will reopen on June 29.

Zimbabwe: USAID commits an additional $10 million to support the World Food Programme’s operations in the country during Covid-19.

African Union: Leaders reiterate their call for debt cancellation and a comprehensive relief package for African nations.

South Africa: “Dexamethasone” – A new study finds hopeful effects when using the drug to treat Covid-19.

The government of Botswana receives 20,000 liters of sanitizer in a donation from the private sector.