COVID-19 AFRICA HEADLINES

Ethiopia: Japan will donate $4 million to UNICEF Ethiopia to assist with Covid-19 relief in the country.

Ghana: President Nana Akufo-Addo announces a three-month extension of benefits for medical workers including a 50 percent increase in salary and income tax exemption.

Guinea-Bissau: Twenty-one Cuban healthcare workers arrive in the country to support treatment efforts for Covid-19 patients.

Nigeria: The Lagos State commissioner for health announces 2,683 active Covid-19 patients have not turned up to isolation centers as required.

Rwanda: Documents reveal that Rwanda has allocated a total of $40 million to fight Covid-19.

South Africa: President Ramaphosa urges South Africans not to stigmatize Covid-19 patients following protests outside local hospitals that are treating individuals with coronavirus.

Tanzania: Millions of students return to school with protective measures in place including facemasks and handwashing.

European Union: Officials announce that citizens of Ethiopia, Zambia, Mozambique, Angola, Namibia, Rwanda, Uganda, Egypt, Tunisia, Algeria, and Morocco will be allowed to enter the European Union when borders reopen.

MEDIA TRENDS

Nigeria: “Interstate movement in Nigeria” – Officials announce that movement across the country may begin as schools reopen and flights resume.

Global Covid-19 cases pass 10 million with over 500,000 deaths.