

Center for Strategic & International Studies
Washington, DC

CSIS-JICC Conference

U.S.-Japan Alliance: A Sustainable Relationship?

Monday, November 1, 1999
Japan Information & Culture Center

On November 1, 1999 four experts from Japan and the United States analyzed the implications of the "Big Bang" reform and deregulation measures in Japan and the changing strategic security relationships in the region at a CSIS-JICC conference.

Please find below the agenda with links to the TRANSCRIPTS of each speakers remarks. Transcripts for the entire event can also be downloaded in Adobe Acrobat [.pdf] format. For more information, please contact Tokuko Shironitta at 202-775-3245.

U.S.-Japan Alliance: A Sustainable Relationship?

Monday, November 1, 1999
8:30 A.M. - 12:00 P.M.
Japan Information & Culture Center
Lafayette Center III, 1155 21st Street, NW

8:30 A.M. -- Welcome
William Breer, CSIS Japan Chair

8:40A.M. -- Opening Remarks
Sunji Yanai, ambassador of Japan

9:00A.M. -10:30 A.M. -- "The Future of the U.S.-Japan Alliance: Changing Asian Security Realities"
Satoshi Marimoto, chief researcher, Nomura Research Institute, Ltd.
Michael Green, Olin fellow, Council on Foreign Relations

10:35P.M. -12:00P.M. -- "U.S.-Japan Economic Relations: Implications of the 'Big Bang'"
Hideki Kanda, faculty of Law, University of Tokyo
Gary Saxonhouse, professor, University of Michigan