

Global Aging Forum

The Economic and Fiscal Impact of Population Aging in the EU

---Speaker's Biography---

Declan Costello
Head of Unit, Directorate-General for Economic and Financial Affairs, European Commission

Declan Costello is an economist working in the Directorate General for Economic and Financial Affairs of the European Commission since 1991. Currently he is Head of Unit in the department responsible for 'Structural reform policy strategy'. Prior to this, he was heading the unit responsible for "Labour markets and welfare systems, including economic aspects of ageing population and taxation", with particular responsibility for carrying out long-run projections on the impact of ageing populations on public spending on pensions, health care and long-term care. He has also worked on issues related to the surveillance of the budgetary policies of EU Member States, with particular responsibility for assessing the sustainability of public finances and carrying out long-run projections on the impact of ageing populations on public spending on pensions, health care and long-term care. He has a degree in economics from Trinity College Dublin and a Masters degree for the College of Europe, Bruges.