

SOUTH ASIA PROGRAM

Center for Strategic and International Studies ■ Washington, D.C.

November 27, 2007

Dear Colleague,

The South Asia Program at CSIS would like to invite you to meet with a Pakistani delegation that will discuss the transition to democracy. The delegation of the Special Envoys of President Musharraf comprising of Dr. Nasim Ashraf, Barrister Mohammad Ali Saif and Ms. Kashmala Tariq will lead a discussion session on December 5, 2007 from 3 P.M. till 4:30 P.M. in the 4th floor conference room at CSIS, 1800 K Street, NW, Washington DC.

The Special Envoys will be visiting Washington to discuss the present situation in Pakistan. Dr. Ashraf is a retired medical doctor and has lived for several years in the United States. Dr. Ashraf is also the founding President of the Major Pakistani American Political Affairs Committee for American Pakistanis (PAKPAC). Barrister Saif is a lawyer with extensive experience in human rights issues and is a Federal Minister for Tourism in the current interim government. Ms. Tariq, a lawyer by profession, was a Member of Parliament in the Pakistan Muslim League (Q) government and also served as the Executive Director of the Parliamentarians Commission for Human Rights (PCHR) in Pakistan.

We hope that you will be able to join us for this discussion session. Vibhuti Haté in my office is handling arrangements, in case you have any questions. She can be reached via email at vhate@csis.org, by phone at 202-775-3184 and fax on 202-775-3199. I look forward to hearing from you.

With best regards,

Ambassador Teresita C. Schaffer
