

Beyond Ideology: Changing Public Opinion and the 2012 South Korean Presidential Elections

A CSIS Korea Chair Platform Session with the ASAN Institute for Policy Studies (AIPS)

January 28, 2011 | 3:30PM – 5:00PM
The Center for Strategic and International Studies
1800 K St., NW, Washington, DC, 20006, B1 Conference Room

AGENDA:

- 3:30 PM - 3:35 PM Welcoming Remarks
Presiding: Victor Cha, CSIS Senior Adviser and Korea Chair
- 3:35 PM - 3:55 PM PRESENTATION 1: “Shifting Political Grounds in South Korea: Results of the 2010 AIPS Korean Public Opinion Survey.”
Presenter (7.5 min): WOO, Jung-Yeop, AIPS Research Fellow
Presenter (7.5 min): KIM, Jiyoon, AIPS Research Fellow
Discussant (5 min): Scott Snyder, Director, Center for U.S.-Korea Policy and Asia Foundation
- 3:55 PM - 4:15 PM PRESENTATION 2: “Information Heuristics and the Politics of Mass Protest in South Korea: The Case of the Anti-U.S. Beef Protests.”
Presenter (7.5 min): GO, Myong-hyun, AIPS Research Fellow
Presenter (7.5 min): HAHM, Chaibong, Director, AIPS
Discussant (5 min): L. Gordon Flake, Executive Director, Mansfield Foundation
- 4:15 PM - 4:35 PM PRESENTATION 3: “Politics of National Security in South Korea: Evolving Public Perception of the ROK-U.S. Alliance.”
Presenter (7.5 min): HAHM, Chaibong, Director, AIPS
Presenter (7.5 min): BONG, Youngshik, AIPS Senior Research Fellow
Discussant (5 min): Bruce Klingner, Senior Fellow, Heritage Foundation
- 4:35 PM - 4:55 PM Question and Answer Session
- 4:55 PM - 5:00 PM Concluding Remarks
HAHM, Chaibong, Director, AIPS