

Chemical Safety and Security: TSCA Legislation and Terrorist Attacks

Monday, July 27, 2015, 2:00 – 5:00 PM

Center for Strategic and International Studies, Room 1st Floor
1616 Rhode Island Avenue, NW, Washington DC

Organized by

Green Cross International (GCI)

International Center for Chemical Safety and Security (ICCSS)
Center for Strategic and International Studies (CSIS)

- 2:00 – 2:15 PM      Registration, coffee/tea
- 2:15 – 2:30 PM      Introductions
- Ms. Sharon Squassoni, Center for Strategic and International Studies
Amb. Krzysztof Paturej, ICCSS
Dr. Paul F. Walker, Green Cross International
- 2:30 – 3:30 PM      Chemical Safety: Modernizing the Toxic Substances Control Act (TSCA) (moderated by Paul Walker)
- Mr. Michael P. Walls, Vice President, American Chemistry Council
Dr. Michal Ilana Freedhoff, Director of Oversight & Investigations,
Office of Senator Edward J. Markey, United States Senate
- 3:30 – 4:00 PM      Chemical Security: Preventing Terrorist Attacks on Chemical Facilities at Home (moderated by Paul Walker)
- Mr. Todd Klessman, Senior Policy Advisor, Infrastructure Security
Compliance Division, Department of Homeland Security
- 4:00 – 5:00 PM      Promoting Global Chemical Safety and Security Standards and Practices (moderated by Sharon Squassoni)
- The Global Partnership Chemical Security Sub-Working Group*
Ambassador Bonnie Jenkins, US Department of State
- The Case of Kenya and Beyond: Security and Non-Proliferation*
Amb. Krzysztof Paturej, President, International Center on Chemical Safety and Security, Warsaw, Poland
Mr. Ali Gakweli, Deputy Government Chemist, Government Chemist
Division, EU CBRN National Focal Point National Authority
(CWC), Nairobi, Kenya

RSVP: PPP@csis.org