

U.S.-SWISS DIALOGUE

“Next Steps on Sudan: Has the Comprehensive Peace Agreement Paved the Way to Peace?”

OCTOBER 7, 2010
9:00 AM – 12:15 PM

CSIS
1800 K STREET, NW
B1 CONFERENCE ROOM

AGENDA

- 8:45 AM COFFEE AND REGISTRATION
- 9:00 AM WELCOMING REMARKS

Stephen Morrison, Senior Vice President, CSIS

Ambassador Urs Ziswiler, Ambassador of Switzerland to the United States
- 9:10 AM KEYNOTE ADDRESS: THREE MONTHS AND COUNTING: PROSPECTS FOR THE REFERENDUM

Lieutenant General Lazaro K. Sumbeiywo (Rtd), Former Kenyan Special Envoy and Lead Mediator of the Sudanese Peace Process
- 9:30 AM A ROAD PAVED WITH GOOD INTENTIONS: EXAMINING THE ROLE OF THE CPA FROM THE DRAFTERS PERSPECTIVE

Moderator: Jennifer Cooke, Director and Senior Fellow, Africa Program, CSIS

Panelists:

Nicholas Haysom, Executive Director, Political Office, Executive Office of the Secretary General, United Nations

Susan Page, Deputy Assistant Secretary of State, Bureau of African Affairs, U.S. Department of State

Julian Thomas Hottinger, Senior Mediator, Swiss Federal Department of Foreign Affairs

11:00 AM JANUARY 2011 AND BEYOND: THE ROAD NOT YET TRAVELED

Moderator: Richard Downie, Fellow, Africa Program, CSIS

Panelists:

Timothy Shortley, U.S. Deputy Special Envoy to Sudan, U.S. Department of State

Shannon Smith, Professional Staff Member, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, U.S. Senate

Ambassador Andrea Semadeni, Special Envoy for Sudan and the Horn of Africa, Political Affairs Division, Swiss Federal Department of Foreign Affairs

12:15 PM CLOSING REMARKS

Heather A. Conley, Director and Senior Fellow, Europe Program, CSIS