Seven Revolutions & Diamond 6 Leadership Workshop

Leadership is the art of defining a vision for an organization and empowering others to follow that vision. Successful leaders must anticipate “revolutions” that will affect their organizations and prepare for future challenges using a combination of innovative leadership principles, best practices, and relevant data.

CSIS’s Seven Revolutions (7Revs) program has partnered with Diamond6 Leadership and Strategy, LLC, to combine leadership lessons from the Battle of Gettysburg with groundbreaking research into pressing global trends. This exclusive effort combines experts in leadership development and global change to create a one-of-a-kind program.

A UNIQUE LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE

The workshop includes a memorable day on the Gettysburg Battlefield with a historian and a leadership expert that will provide key leadership insights that are as applicable today as they were in 1863. We will complete our discussion in the cemetery where President Lincoln delivered the Gettysburg Address – perhaps the most succinct vision statement in the English language.

For those who select the extended version, we will examine Seven Revolutions, a comprehensive multimedia presentation of future trends created by CSIS. This includes innovative exercises and in-depth/tailored discussions that will transform any leader’s approach to emerging challenges. You will have the opportunity to dissect issues and evaluate priorities with CSIS’s leading scholars and Diamond6’s leadership experts to take the first step toward identifying actions that will positively affect the future of your organization.

This discussion begins with a question—what will the world look like in 2030 and beyond? We focus on the seven areas where we expect change to be “revolutionary”:

- |                               |                |
|-------------------------------|----------------|
| (1) population                | (5) economics  |
| (2) resource management       | (6) security   |
| (3) technology                | (7) governance |
| (4) information and knowledge |                |

Seven Revolutions

The 7Revs/Diamond6 Leadership Workshop explores leadership lessons from the past, analyzes impending challenges, and will help your organization create concrete and tailored action plans for the future. Our goal is to spark a dialogue within your organization that draws critical lessons from the past and generates solutions to future challenges. We build on each leader's experience to identify opportunities and challenges that you may encounter, as well as strategies for managing them successfully.

ATTENDANCE

All current and developing leaders will benefit greatly and elevate their leadership skills with the 7Revs/Diamond6 Leadership Program. The program is invaluable for private sector boards of directors, senior leadership bodies, or as part of a corporate leadership/strategic planning workshops. Government and nongovernment organizations will also profit significantly from the individual and organizational development. The program can be utilized in conjunction with conferences, corporate retreats and in-house leadership development programs.

SCHEDULE

In honor of the 150th Anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg, the 7Revs Leadership Program will be offered September thru November in and around central Pennsylvania and Washington, DC with a constant overarching theme of "learn from the past to prepare for the future." Pick which seminar package would work best for you and your group. Bus transportation, hotel and meals are included.

1. Learning from the Past

During this 1-day workshop participants will be introduced to some of the leadership concepts illustrated at the Battle of Gettysburg. After an overview presentation the certified battlefield historian and leadership expert will guide you through the most important landmarks of the battle and break down the leadership principles into applicable modern day concepts.

2. Learning from the Past and Challenges of the Future

This 2-day workshop includes the Gettysburg Leadership Workshop and the opportunity to experience the groundbreaking presentation Seven Revolutions during which you will learn about the most important trends that are shaping our world through 2035. All effective leaders must be aware of these concepts in order to ensure the success of their organizations.

3. Applying Past Principals to New Realities

This 3-day workshop brings together all aspects of leadership - past, present and future. After you experience the Gettysburg Leadership Workshop and the 7 Revolutions presentation you have the opportunity to directly apply what you have learned through engaging seminars and active discussion. You and your team will create a strategic plan that will address your most pressing visions and goals.
